Re: Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation -v-
Lewis Perry, et.al.
Case Number: 07 CIV 5739
Our File No: 2007-16

Dear Justice Robinson:

The undersigned is counsel to the Alexander Road Association, Inc. and has been approached by individually named defendants in the above referenced matter. All of said defendants were served on or around June 27, 2007.

On June 30, 2007, I was admitted to New York University Hospital for emergency spinal disc surgery, and am currently unable to work from my office.

Since service by Plaintiff I have been attempting to confirm representation of the following named defendants so as to appear in the above captioned matter:

1. Alexander Road Association, Inc.;
2. Lewis Perry and Yolanda Perry;
3. Edward R. Mateo and Rosann P. Mateo;
4. Adam Doran and Nicole Doran; and
5. Richard Delisi.

I spoke with Plaintiff's counsel, Scott S. McKessy on July 9, 2007 concerning a reasonable adjournment to answer on behalf of the above listed named defendants. I was informed by Mr. McKessy that the first original date to respond by any defendant is July 16, 2007.

The Honorable Stephen C. Robinson

As such, I requested a thirty (30) day extension until August 16, 2007 in order to properly engage as counsel the above listed named defendants and respond. Mr. McKessy graciously consented to my requested adjournment.

No previous such request has been made in this matter

I ask that the court grant the extension of time for the undersigned to appear and respond on behalf of the above listed named defendants and any resultant change to the submission date of the proposed Scheduling Order.

Very truly yours,
Zraick, Nahas & Rich

The above-listed Defendants
now have until August 16, 2007
to answer or otherwise move with respect to the Complaint.
